

The Information about collecting your data:

By visiting our websites and using associated GTC technologies you can do it without telling us who you are or revealing any of your personal information. However, sometimes we may gather information from you. Personal information like your name, postal address and e-mail address is obtained only when voluntarily submitted. Technical information, like details about your device and IP address, may be collected by virtue of your use of certain other GTC technologies. GTC collects this information in several ways:

- Through the GTC Profile page (see below)
- Through registration, surveys and other online forms (some of which may be managed by third parties on behalf of GTC)
- As part of an ongoing sales process
- While providing technical support, consultation, live chat, or product information
- Through the process of maintaining and upgrading our products
- Through automated means such as communications protocols, e-mail communications and cookies
- Through our mobile applications (some of which may be managed by third parties on behalf of GTC)
- Through your use of social connectors and GTC-affiliated social networking areas
- Through your interest in GTC ads placed on third party sites

To provide you with timely, high-quality information, we may also ask you to provide us with information regarding your professional interests and experiences with our products or services. Providing us with this information is optional. Personal data or other data collected online may also be combined with information you provide to us through other sources such as product registration, call centers, or in conjunction with events such as trade shows, training seminars and conferences. Information that you supply will relate to the relationship that GTC has with you or your organization.

Your Profile

Your profile is one collection point we use to manage your personal information. You can create, access, and update your profile information at any time by visiting <http://www.gtc.com.pl>, www.galeriapolnocna.pl, www.galeriajurajska.pl Creating a Profile enables you to:

Web Server Logs

In the process of administering this site, we maintain and track usage through Web server logs. Web server logs provide information such as what types of browsers are accessing our site, what pages receive high traffic, and the times of day our servers experience significant load. We use this information to improve the content and navigation features of our site. Anonymized or aggregated forms of this data may be used to identify future features and functions to develop for the site and to provide better customer service.

Cookies

Certain technologies, called "cookies," can be used to provide tailored information from a website. A cookie is an element of data that a website can send to your browser, which your browser may then store on your system. Some pages on our site use cookies that assist you in navigating and using the site, for example, to help you access secure areas or use a shopping cart. GTC may set these types of cookies without requesting your consent.

Other pages on the site may set cookies to collect aggregate usage information that we use to improve how the site works. Cookies may also be used on our site to remember certain choices you make, such as your geographical region, your user name, or other personalization or customization. We use these cookies to improve your user experience so we can better serve you when you return to our site. GTC will consider your use of the Web site as your consent for GTC to set these types of cookies.

GTC may work with select third-party partners who set cookies to serve you GTC-related content, including GTC advertisements, on their sites or elsewhere on the Internet, based on your prior visits to our site. GTC also sets cookies that look at your preferences when you use the website so that GTC may offer you tailored marketing collateral, such as whitepapers, that you may be interested in. You may need to enable use of these kinds of cookies via the mechanism provided by GTC for these cookies to work. You can set your browser to notify you when you receive a cookie, giving you the chance to decide whether to accept it. By using our website, you agree that we can place these types of cookies on your system. For more information, please refer to user information provided with your Web browser. At this time, we do not respond to browser "do not track" signals, but we do provide you the option to opt out of behavioral advertising. To learn more about behavioral advertising or to opt-out of this type of advertising, visit the Network Advertising Initiative website or Digital Advertising Alliance website. Please note that if you disable cookies, some site functionality may be limited.

Web Beacons

Some of our Web pages and HTML-formatted e-mail use Web beacons in conjunction with cookies to compile aggregate statistics about website usage. A Web beacon is an electronic image, called a single-pixel (1x1) or clear GIF. Web beacons can recognize certain types of information on a visitor's computer, such as a visitor's cookie number, time and date of a page view and a description of the page where the Web beacon is placed. You may render some Web beacons unusable by rejecting their associated cookies.

Personalized URL Links and Personalized Message Content

Occasionally, we may create a unique web URL link for certain visitors. If you visit one of these sites, you may find forms that are already filled out with your name, or other types of information you have previously indicated an interest in, based on information you have given us before. We may also personalize the content of newsletters, e-mail offers, invitations, or GTC advertisements served to you on our third party partners' websites, based on topics in which you have previously indicated an interest. We collect information about how you consume this type of personalized information in order to help us provide you with other information that is better tailored to your interests. If you choose to visit one of these personalized web URL links, you are agreeing to allow GTC to collect information about your visits and also to associate that information with other information about you and your relationship with GTC. If you do not wish your information to be used in this way, do not accept the invitation to visit these sites.

Other Technologies

We may use other technologies to capture specific data, such as the pages you view, the items you download, the links you click, your access times, and your Internet Protocol (IP) address, domain name, and system configurations and settings, to help us understand how you use GTC-affiliated technologies, serve you relevant content, and to assist you with questions you may have regarding our products and services. If you decided that you want to fine-tune the information that GTC is providing to you, we invite you to update your GTC Profile.

GTC may use your personal information in justified reasons to:

Fulfill subscription requests, orders for software and services made online and to provide other information you request

Make the website easier for you to use

Help us customize content most relevant to your interests

Notify you about important news concerning GTC

Notify you of new products and services, product updates, technical support issues, events and special offers we think you may be interested in

Promote our products and services on our website and third party partners' websites

Prevent and detect fraud or other prohibited or illegal activity

Protect the security and integrity of the website

We do analyze some of our Web services such as registrations, demos, downloads, and e-mail responses at the individual level in order to improve the quality of those offerings and to better tailor our marketing to our customers' needs.

How We Share Your Information

We may share the personal data you provide with other GTC entities and/or business partners for purposes related to those described above. We will not sell, rent or lease to others your personally identifiable information. GTC reserves the right to disclose any and all pertinent information to law enforcement or other governmental officials as we, in our sole discretion, believe necessary or appropriate.

Choice / Opt-Out

GTC offers you the choice of receiving different types of communication and information related to our company, products and services. You may subscribe to e-newsletters or other publications; you may also elect to receive marketing communications and other special offers from us via e-mail. If at any time you would like to change your communication preferences, please send us information on contact data as prescribed below. You may also access and manage your preferences from your GTC Profile page.

Our Commitment to Data Security

GTC is concerned about the security of your information regarding the GDPR. To prevent unauthorized access or disclosure, to maintain data accuracy, and to ensure the appropriate use of information, we have put in place reasonable physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

External Links

Links to third-party websites from this website are provided solely as a convenience to you. If you use these links, you will leave this site. We have not reviewed these third-party sites and do not control them. GTC does not assume responsibility for any of these sites, their content, or their privacy policies. GTC does not endorse or make any representations about them or any information, software or other products or materials found there, or any results that may be obtained from using them. If you decide to access any of the third-party sites linked to this site, you do so at your own risk.

Our Worldwide Practices

GTC is a global corporation with subsidiaries and business partners in many countries, and with technical systems that cross borders. Personal information collected on our site may be transferred across state and country borders and stored or processed in the European Union or European countries outside the EU, United States or any other country in which GTC, its subsidiaries, affiliates or business units maintain facilities for the purposes of data consolidation, storage, and simplified customer information management. Any such transfer of information outside of your country of residence is done subject to all security aspects of your data and is always justified. GTC, our subsidiaries, affiliates and business units will handle your information collected on our site in a consistent manner, as described here, even if the laws in some countries may provide less protection for your information.

Changes to This Statement

If there are updates to the terms of GTC's online Privacy Statement, we will post those changes here and update the revision date in this document so that you will always know what information we collect online, how we use it, and what choices you have. Posting of changes to this Privacy Statement will be highlighted to let you consent to it once again.

Your Acceptance of These Terms

By using GTC's website, you signify your assent to this Privacy Statement.
